Is life merely a bubble of illusion
With every thought adding to confusion?
If so, existence is of little use at all
And the Self must be denied its heights...to fall.
No! This cannot be, but hold, 'tis man's selection
He will miss or make the mark by choosing a DIRECTION...

The many faces
of learning,
Each special.

The whence and whither of it all—

And then,

The why ...

A wall of faces,
Crumbling,
Yet standing,
Due to a caring few . . .

Jumbled occurrences
Here and gone . . .

And the single idea sought
Has passed, unnoticed . . .

Pep Rally---

A poor life 'tis, with every care
 If not for leisure time to spare
 To smell rain air
 Or sit and stare . . .

MR. LUCKY CANDIDATES--FRONT ROW: Harold Nelson, Tim Towns. SECOND ROW: Alan Peck, Toby Ryan, Mark Hatch, Ed Hearn. THIRD ROW: Bob James, Bill Mellor, David Maw, Jim Steele.

FIRST DANCE... HOWDY HOP... MR. LUCKY...

Donna Clark congratulated David Maw as he is chosen Mr. Lucky.

CLUB ACTIVITIES

Spanish Club members perform before their audience as entertainment at the Spanish American Dinner.

Running the gamut,
Playing the game,
Getting the gist of it all...

Girls line up for a gunny sock and a one-footed race at the GAA kickoff.

A.F.S. . . .

Earth's youth united, striving to understand, grasping the tread, barely...A.F.S.
Curiosity, the yearn to learn, adaptability, understanding, acceptance-
These and more needed...

And then perhaps...
Increased understanding among all peoples, and World Peace...A.F.S.

PANTHERETTES

The trophy for the most spirited group on campus went to the large-lunged Pantherettes. After a heated yelling contest in which the nearest competitor was the band led by Mr. Rickson and his brown cap, the red vested Pantherettes were awarded the spirit trophy (right).

Pantherettes also led the school in the fashion field. The Annual Pantherette Fashion Show was a smash as was any activity undertaken by this group.

WHERE IS THE

Let's Have a Talk
... this year several
On the Beam CHS
students decided to Play it Cool in
"Where is the Mayor," the first
CHS musical since 1941. Lacey and Weirick, writers of the musical, jetted
out to see the CHS production. It was great, but Don't Feel Badly if you missed it... Let's
Get Happy, Three
Cheers... for Mr.
Halperin, Mr. Rick-
son, Mr. Baughman, and Miss Horan are probably even now preparing for next year's hit.

MAYOR?

HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES

HOMECOMING

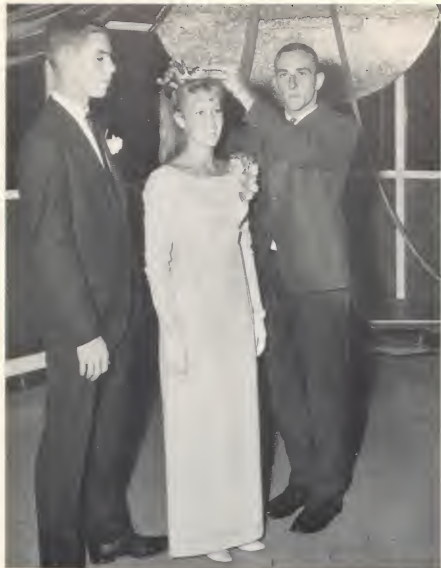

ACTIVITIES

HOMECOMING - AN INTERVAL OF LIFE
 The excitement, intensity, the spirit throb,
 The deafening beat of the keyed-up mob.
 Chickenwire, wheelbarrows, rallies galore,
 Powderpuff Football--and the crowd shouts "More!"
 "More of this throbbing, moving existence;
 Don't let it end!" their ceaseless insistence.
 These seven days climaxed by a game,
 Climaxed by the crowning of a queen,
 And all the while in between--
 The lifelike throb permeates, extends,
 Grows, flourishes, and at its peak, ends.
 Silence, and the victory of being
 Vanished unnoticed, the same crowd--not seeing
 And instead of that deafening, beautiful tone--
 Again a sob, a whine, a groan.

A moment of glory, a regal procession, an awesome atmosphere, a mood, music, lights, the crown, and beauty...her majesty Winkie Wolfe.

Lettermen sans red-gold jackets, in tuxedos...the perfect escorts. A smashing evening...the Lettermen's Ball.

FOOTBALL . . .

Sweat-filled eyes blur the field, tackles close in, the dull roar of the stands, lights, a hole in the line of bodies, a run or a pass, and a victory...Football!

Chosen as the best in their position for the Ivy League Team were Mark Hatch and Jeff McKlintock. Making the second Ivy League Team was defensive tackle, John Kellogg.

WRESTLING . . .

Dramatic poses, referees on the ground, famous for the arm lever hold, the height of physical stamina, strength, style, skill, lightning-quick maneuvers, aching muscles, endurance, the bell...second in the entire Ivy League... CHS Wrestling.

BASKETBALL . . .

Skill and stamina, excitement, frenzied arms reaching for the ball, spider-like in motion...Basketball...1967 All Tournament Team of ten players, with two Panthermen Eddie Best and Tim Tawns.

The forty-third annual Hi-Jinx Ball honored nine senior girls. By tradition, these are the girls who have served CHS most both through academic and extra curricular activities. Sponsored by the Girls' League, this year's ball was enhanced by the music of the CHS Stage Band and the theme of "Daisies Don't Tell." The evening was climaxed by the coronation of the 1967 Hi-Jinx Queen, Betsy Monich and the traditional Black Hawk Waltz.

SOMETHING ELSE

The Annual "thing" this year was the Senior's "Something Else." With emcees Ed Statan and Besty Monich, the thing could be no less than a regular hit-which it was. Some performing groups were "The Blue Mist", "That's Them", "Misty Morns", "Us!", "Captain Billies' Wizbag", and the "Aragans". Other acts included such musicians as Chris Hagen and Tricia Westbrook, Steve Kessler, Cesar Burgas and Gardan Koenig, Bill Hendricksan, Danna Clark, Mike and Jackie Hawley, Leslie Pratt, Debbie Caplen, Dan Kennedy, and Ed Stanton.

Representative and Inter-Club Councils

As the funneling agent and governing body for all CHS clubs, the Inter-Club Council has, indeed, a comprehensive job. Members of the Council, who are the presidents of the various campus clubs, set a precedent this year with their main project, the Inter-Club Council Dinner. Pete Schwartz, president of the Inter-Club Council, was in charge of this successful activity.

CHS scholars may become members of this honorary group if the requirement of 10 academic credits per semester is met. Three credits are given for an A, one for a B, and one for such extra curricular activities as being a cheerleader or club president. The club plans field trips throughout the year and is active in campus doings. Being affiliated with the California Scholastic Federation entitles members to apply for scholarships sponsored by the Federation and to attend Federation conferences.

Lettermen decked in red and gold jackets are an ordinary sight around CHS. Combining sportsmanship and fellowship, the Lettermen sponsor several fund raising activities. Among these are the Lettermen's Ball, The Harlem Travelers vs. CHS faculty game, and the All American Red-Head Team game. These activities were topped in success only by another Lettermen-sponsored event, the newly initiated Slave Day. This two day affair where Lettermen were offered as slaves to the highest bidder, raised the unexpected amount of $100. These and other Lettermen-raised funds were well utilized in the buying of school sporting equipment such as the gloss backboards for basketball.

"A thousand, more or less," said Mrs. Arnold grinningly as she reflected on her years as sponsor of the Welfare Committee. This committee, which was started long ago by an English class, now consists of Senior Home-making students and meets during Orientation periods.

The year's monthly welfare projects started with a September collection for the ASB Emergency Fund, and ended with May's Cancer Fund Drive. At Christmas, the committee organized the adoption of twenty-seven families in the community. Among other projects, the committee also sent two educational kits to Viet Nam, collected for Heart disease, Cancer, the Blind and Crippled.

HI-TRI

The three-pointed Hi-Tri emblem symbolizes the club's goal of individual improvement mentally, physically and spiritually. Although Hi-Tri is a hard-working community service club, they have lots of fun, too, as their year's program shows. Among the activities listed on their agenda was the Party for the School of the Deaf, Christmas Ball sponsorship, a tour of Sunkist Lemon Exchange, and a speaker having E.S.P. Hi-Tri has indeed had another fun and successful year to look back upon with pride.

Boasting spirit at games and entering several regional competitions, the "Coronettes" have drilled their way through their second successful year at CHS. Late afternoon practices and frostbite from winter-night half time performances were more than compensated for by the all-out fun in performing such routines as Acapulco 1922 and by the team's well-deserved laurels from the various contests. Among others, the "Coronettes" competed at the San Bernardino Christmas Parade winning a third place, the Rialto Christmas Parade where they also won a third, the Orange Shaw Parade, and the Saint Patricks Day's Parade.

The largest club on campus, Girls' League, boasts membership of every girl at CHS, a total of over 1,000 members. Among their many activities this year, Girls' League sponsored the Hi-Jinx Ball, gave Girl of the Month awards, started a Hush Bow Day, gave an All-Girl Show, and sponsored car washes.

A Pantherette must have these things; (1) a red vest with a black panther emblazoned on the front, (2) a sincere wish to be among the most school spirited girls at CHS, and (3) personal qualities unquestionably "good." This organization of devoted girls, sponsored by Miss (Happy) Horan, again carried out their annual program of good deeds and fun. Some of these activities were the sponsoring of game sales, the Fashion Show, the Kickoff picnic, the Christmas Breakfast, and the end-of-the-year installation dinner. In all it was another successful year for this fine organization.

Marilyn Smith displays Pantherette spirit by taking part in Homecoming Week activities.

Students with an interest in Latin culture and background have found their ideal setting in the Latin Club. One of the club's main activities this year was helping with the Intra-Club Council Banquet. Headed by co-counsels Sam Erez and Larry Hemken, secretary Karen Smithson, and Pam Costa, treasurer, this club has finished another year of hard work and fun.

FRONT ROW: Sal Cervantes, Vicki Knarr, Pam Hull, Linda Ingram, Kris Smith, Unidentified, Terry Holmes, Mary Bomgrover, Kathy James, Kathy Bean, Connie Bean, Mrs. Sklepovich. "Vive la France" might well be the motto of this well-known club. The members are sincerely interested in studying the French language and customs. Ideally they would hope to visit France since they realize that the best way to become acquainted with the French way of life is actually to live it. They have a realistic solution to this, though. They have created a microcosm within CHS with French atmosphere, customs, and speech. And, voilà, the French Club.

Future Teachers of America know that this is the only way to go:
Of Self, of Time, unceaseless giving
Loving learning and learning living . . .
In many lives the most influential,
The greatest thinker, the most essential
Has often been one of the same--
The same in ideals, the same in name
And this one type of depth and scope
In a shallow expanse, is an echo of hope;
For in a climate of experience, he
Induces others to think, to be . . .
And who is this being, this for our teacher--
He's the truly professional Master Teacher.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

On a national basis FFA trains students for agriculture business and production. Although the Corona chapter of this organization functions quietly up in the distant agriculture building, their relative unceasing involvement in club activities is astounding. Attending a complex schedule of fairs and other competitions, the Corona Agricultural group is quite famous for their set-up and is used as a model by UCR Agriculture students.

Among the outstanding individuals in this area were Jack Cox, owner of the champion angus steer of the Riverside County Fair, Jeanine Lamkin, owner of a grand champion lamb at the L.A. Champion Fair, and Irwin Gisler, owner of the champion heifer of the Indio Fair. At the Co-Op quiz, a state-wide competition, the Corona FFA chapter was the host chapter and ranked as the second highest school.

Thought and Expression--they are the twins of Progress. People may have great thoughts, but in order to progress in this world, one must also be able to express these thoughts to his fellows. He must be able to communicate. In the National Forensic League, young speakers learn to do this and they realize that oratory is not simply "deep noises from the chest," but is, in the larger sense, "the good man speaking--well!"

Among their other activities, the NFL attended the Fontana Tournament, the Ramona Invitational Tournament and the Claremont Men's College Tournament, entering and placing in divisions of oratory and dramatical interpretations.

The Thespians, or members of the CHS Drama Club, have had a busy year. Their main effort was the production of "The Diary of Anne Frank" which was a huge success. It told the memorable story of the Jewish family's troubles after are II World War Era. The theme of the play was that in spite of everything, people are really good at heart.

DIRECTION

"KNOW THYSELF," A PERSPECTIVE, A START--
NOW SEEK A DIRECTION, THINK AND DEPART.
IN SEEKING DIRECTION THERE MUST BE A GOAL,
COMMITMENT TO SELF IN REGARD TO THE WHOLE;
COMMITMENT TO TRUTH, TO THAT WHICH IS REAL,
A DRIVING FORCE YOU CAN'T HELP BUT FEEL.
YOU ASK, "WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE?
HAVE I LIMITS, OR INFINITY?"
THE LIMITING WALLS ARE ALWAYS SELF MADE
BY THE LITTLE MAN WHO IS SIMPLY AFRAID,
AFRAID TO SEEK, FEARING WHAT HE WILL FIND--
UNDERESTIMATING THE AWESOME MIND.
THIS NONCOMMITTED, PITIFUL BEING
BUILDS WALLS OF APATHY, UNSEEING
SO BE COMMITTED TO SOME IDEAL
TAKE OFF IN ANY DIRECTION YOU FEEL,
BUT PERHAPS THE HIGHEST, THE MOST ESSENTIAL
IS COMMITMENT TO SELF AND SELF POTENTIAL.
FOR ALL ELSE WILL COME UNDER THIS AIM,
LOVE, TRUTH, A GOD, THE SAME.
A MAZE OF DIRECTIONS? YES, BUT EACH WALL
WHEN TRUTHFULLY MEN WILL CRUMBLE AND FALL,
AND EVERY ARROW, POINT HOW IT MAY,
IS SIMPLY ANOTHER FORM OF THE WAY;
WITH NO STATIC MOMENTS, EACH FOOTPRINT, EACH DOUBT IS TRIUMPH AND BEAUTY...MAN REACHING OUT.

"Oh-h-h-h . . . Look Don!"

If people weren't dancing, they were sitting at their tables talking or eating.

Saturday night, April 16, the ASB Ball was held off campus in the Stirrup Room of the Hickory Bar-B-Que. The theme, "Spring Fantasy," was an effective blend of oriental branches decorated with large blossams suspended on the walls, large scandinavian planters placed around the room, white Victorian garden furniture, and the accent of large big-top canopy over the entrance. Small tables with center pieces of large paper blossams, seating one to two couples, were arranged around the dance floor. Music, furnished by "The Rogues" created a spring time atmosphere. Hors d-oeuvres of mushrooms, caviar, anchovies and imported cheeses were served.

ASB CONVENTION

A suggestion, a petition, an election, an amendment to the ASB Constitution, and a lot of hard work on the part of the executive council made the nominating convention a reality.

Delegates were elected in orientation classes and were sent to the convention to vote as orientation classes desired. President, Ace Waggoner, and Principal, Mr. Donahue, welcomed the delegates, candidates, campaign managers and visitors. Throughout the day there were many caucus periods and wild throwing of confetti. Following several votings all but two candidates were eliminated for each office. These candidates were voted on by the student body the following week.

Refreshments, made by Sr. Homemaking students, was served in the Star Room.

OPEN HOUSE

Open House was a wonderful chance for all the parents to see how their children were doing in school. The P.T.A. sponsored this annual event providing an opportunity to observe the education of the leaders of tomorrow. Pantherettes handed out programs and served as guides to parents in seeking the educational haven of their children.

The science room . . . Mr. Price?

Sam Lunetta busy at work in the art room.

ASB officers preside over the Nominating Convention.

Amidst cheers, confetti, and laughter, a nomination was made.

The first concert of combined vocal and instrumental departments, presented Friday night, May 20, was well received and thoroughly enjoyed. Vocal groups included the A Cappella Choir, Girls' Glee, Boys' Glee, Madrigal Singers, and soloists, Karen McWilliams, Terry Taylor, and Mark Slegers. The instrumental groups included the Concert Band, Percussion ensemble, Stage Band, and student directors, Randy Bane and Peter Schwartz.

Some of the highlights of the program included the retaping of "Creation" because a fuse blew up, the little man (the recording mechanic) running around adjusting the microphones and apologizing for the interruption by saying "sorry 'bout that...." the extremely enthralling percussion ensemble, Terry Taylor's humble but haphazard bow following a solo, and the three and a half hour long marathon marvelously accepted by both the musical department and the audience.

Congratulations to both Mr. Halperin and Mr. Rickson, (and the little recording Man) !!!

SPRING CONCERT

SENIOR THING

The Senior Thing this year was basically the same idea as The Senior Hootenanny was in the past two years. The senior class felt that this "talent show", of sorts, shouldn't be limited to just folk singers. By calling it the Senior Thing, such acts as "The Tombstone Blues", a popular folk rock band here in town, Tim Monich brothers, small skits, and, of course, the ever-leading folk singers, themselves, were able to perform and provide an atmosphere of friendly, casual relaxation. All in all the Senior Thing made for an interesting and entertaining night away from home, or the "Del".

Bet you didn't know Panthers were so talented!

Spring Concert . . . Director Mr. Halperin

Betsy Monich stopped the show with her songs . . . "Second Hand Rose", and "I Enjoy Being A Girl."

Tully, Warren Fox, Addresses Glarianna as Tim Manich looks on.

Will Panthers ever forget "The Mouse That Roared?" Corona High Mosquers produced and performed this two act play to students, faculty, and parents May 25 and 26. The Wednesday night performance proved to be uproariously funny. After the first scene, scenery was in need of repair. It took quite awhile, so the audience cheered on Betsy Monich, who finally stood up from the audience and sang "Second Hand Rose". The play resumed once again, with ad-libs right and left. The audience was literally in the aisles. The Thursday night performance started with fote on its side. Count Mountjoy, better known around campus as Tim Monich, suddenly developed loryngitis right before show time. The cast had him backstage eating lemons, gargling salt water, and drinking fruit punch. Scenery began to shake and rattle as Regino Biggers, playing the role of Gloriono the 12th, High ruler of Grand Fenwick, frontically tried completing an exit by pulling on a door, instead of pushing.

All in all it was completely successful and truly a highlight of the 1965-66 year. Sponsors were Mr. Newmann, and Mr. Blonkenschap. Student director was Phil Weisbeck and prompter, Suzonne Duncon.

The Girls' Glee performance at the Spring Concert . . . Director Stuart Halperin.

A very pleased audience at the "Senior Thing".

The Junior-Senior Prom . . . at the Corona National Guard Armory.

Miki and Harold, Sharon and Ray, Donna and Jay, Ace and Mary, Carol and Big Jer... a few of the Seniors enjoying the Prom.

Steve helps Nancy choose her "poppie" souvenir.

"Ohhh...you've spilled punch on my dress!" "That's the fifth time you've stepped on my toe during this dance...that's ok...at least you do it gracefully!" "Look at that funny couple! What're they doing"...oh yeah, I remember, vaguely. Wasn't it called the twist?" "Aw...come on, Myrthle. Let's go eat. If my stomach growls once more-----!"

The Junior-Senior Prom presented to the Class of 1966 by the Class of 1967, was held Saturday, May 28, off campus at the Carona National Guard Armory. The Theme-"Over the Rainbow", was carried out with Wizard of Oz characters. Music by The Rogues provided the right touch of atmosphere to give the evening a glow that will radiate in the seniors' minds for quite some time.

BACCALAUREATE

Graduation is not all fun activities. There is one somber note to the occasion when the Senior class is brought together under the same roof as relatives, friends, neighbors, and ministers of various churches to ponder upon things past, present, and future.

Baccalaureate Services were held Sunday June 12 in the afternoon. Ministers from various churches participated in the religious program; the Corona Senior High Concert Band provided the processional. A tea was held following the ceremony.

THE BEGINNING OF GRADUATION WEEK.

AWARDS ASSEMBLY

The purpose of an Awards Assembly is to pass out scholarships and achievements awards to those who have worked hard for the honor. This year's Senior Award's Assembly was held Tuesday, June 14. A general awards assembly was held Wednesday, May 25 honoring all other students.

One of the lost privileges of a senior class is to receive its yearbooks before underclassmen. Far be it from Coronado High to break tradition. This year's senior class received their Coronals during the Senior Lunch. All underclassmen received their books Wednesday morning. The remainder of the day proved hectic as students ran from desk to desk, from room to room, trying to fill their yearbooks with good wishes and a few sad farewells.

Following their last high school exam, Seniors gathered in the Stor room for a luncheon. In keeping with tradition the seniors observed a dress-up-day; in keeping with the hot weather, bermudas and ties become the dress for the day for many. The luncheon was concluded with the presentation of the yearbook by Barbara Ruona and Merrilee Stewart. Within minutes seniors were proudly looking themselves in the honored senior sections or signing their friend's book.

SENIOR DINNER DANCE

Mountain View Country Club hosted this years' Senior Dinner Dance. The senior sponsored affair for seniors only once again provided an evening of sheer fun for the graduates. Dancing around the pool and eating, eating provided the entertainment until midnight. This school sponsored event kicked off a week of social obligations for the class of '66. Private parties, senior skip day at Highland Springs Resort, and beach parties rounded out a week of parties...and semester exams.

The CORONAL Soc Hop, an annual event, was specially for signing year-books. Everybody come, armed with pens, pencils, nails, lipstick, chalk--anything that would write--and their annuals, and exchanged brief notes, long letters, Good Luck's, Good Bye's, and names. One of the last chances for Seniors, Juniors, and Sophomores to mingle, the hop was really a success!

CORONAL SIGNING SOC-HOP

DAISIES...RED ROBES...

"Pomp and Circumstance" and the CHS band mark the beginning of a beginning--a ceremony of graduation into a new kind of life. Led by ten Junior honor students--the Daisy Chain girls--the Seniors, the graduates of 1966, made their entrance. Red robes...dignity...gold honor cords...

Ace Waggoner, president of ASB, led the Pledge of Allegiance, followed by the National Anthem.

The Invocation was given by Reverend Donald D. Stout of the First Baptist Church.

Graduates, parents, friends, faculty, and administration were greeted by Solutatorian Randy Samstag.

Peggy Mellor, Valedictorian, also addressed the assemblage.

Principal Philip Donahue presented the Class of 1966 to the Board of Education's Superintendent, Dr. John Stollings. Diplomas were awarded by the members of the Board of Trustees.

Jonathan Vaughn, president of Senior Class, led the 460 students in switching their tassels from the right to the left.

The Benediction was given by Reverend Ernest R. Peirson of the Norco Community Church.

GOLD TASSELS...POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE...DIPLOMAS...GRADUATION

MAGIC!

Only minutes after graduating the class of '66 was whisked off to an all-night party at Disneyland. The Magic Kingdom opened its doors for GRAD NITE, meaning fun, excitement, and dancing. Graduates dressed up for the occasion--their last chance to be together--and having a good time that they will long remember.
